

I support this petition filed by FISTS. Preserving the Morse Code licensing requirement is of primary importance to Amateur Radio. Morse is the most efficient mode of communication, and has provided most of the cutting edge contacts over the years.